

Contents

| | |
|--------------------------------------|----------|
| List of Abbreviations | iv |
| List of Tables and Appendices | v |
| Abstract | vi |
| 1 Introduction | 1 |
| 2 Early Years in York | |
| Introduction | 18 |
| Early years in North Street | 20 |
| Schooling of the children | 29 |
| Living standards | 36 |
| Brothers & sisters | 50 |
| The Empson family | 57 |
| Charles Empson | 59 |
| Conclusion | 65 |
| 3 Apprenticeship and Training | |
| Introduction | 67 |
| Learning on the job | 70 |
| Formal training | 92 |
| Affording it | 95 |
| Cholera | 102 |
| Temperance and vegetarianism | 105 |
| Conclusion | 111 |
| 4 London Life | |
| Introduction | 113 |
| Medical schools | 116 |
| Hospital practice | 135 |
| Professional examinations | 144 |
| Affording it | 146 |
| Setting up in practice | 151 |
| Doctor-patient relationships | 158 |
| Conclusion | 165 |

| | | |
|----------|--|-----|
| 5 | Medical Societies | |
| | Introduction | 167 |
| | History of medical societies | 169 |
| | Doctor-doctor relationships | 180 |
| | Differences of opinion | 188 |
| | From generalist to specialist | 202 |
| | Conclusion | 211 |
| | | |
| 6 | Epidemiology - the Greatest Influence | |
| | Introduction | 213 |
| | Cholera 1831-2 | 215 |
| | Communication of theory | 223 |
| | Communication of statistical proof | 237 |
| | The communication process | 248 |
| | Public health and epidemiology | 261 |
| | Conclusion | 266 |
| | | |
| 7 | Managing Change in Clinical Practice | |
| | Introduction | 268 |
| | Ether to chloroform | 270 |
| | Establishing a specialist practice | 283 |
| | Blessed chloroform | 298 |
| | Developing relationships and roles | 307 |
| | Conclusion | 320 |
| | | |
| 8 | Professional Emergence | |
| | Introduction | 322 |
| | Economic aspects | 324 |
| | The application of science | 332 |
| | Professionalisation | 342 |
| | | |
| | Appendices | 357 |
| | Bibliography | 367 |