Dear Anti-Apartheid Friends and Activists,

The Human Rights Day planning group, which organized the December 10 protest at Citibank, met yesterday to evaluate the event and plan for the future. We agreed that the demonstration went well, even though Citibank's refusal to arrest the civil disobedience group undercut subsequent media coverage.

We also recognized that Citibank has not indicated any consideration of withdrawing from South Africa, and decided that ongoing pressure and protests are necessary. We have projected a plan for a series of continuing actions at Citibank—the first of which will be on (and in honor of) Dr. King's birthday on January 15 (Thursday) at Citibank.

The plans are quite creative and designed to have a strong impact, particularly in keeping with the principles and strategies advanced and exemplified by Dr. King's work.

THERE WILL BE ONE (ONLY) MEETING TO MAP OUT THE ACTIONS FOR THAT DAY:

   Wednesday, January 7, 1987
   2 p.m.
   475 Riverside Drive (Seventh Floor Board Room)

If you can't come or have questions, please give me a call at 870-2928.

I hope your holidays bring joy and renewed strength as we begin a year of activism for justice and peace.

In solidarity,

Donna Katzin
