DR. JOSEPH A. ADEGBITE TO SPEAK

On Sunday, June 9, 1968 Dr. Joseph A. Adegbite, prominent Nigerian science educator, currently visiting professor at Georgetown College in Kentucky, will speak to the St. Louis Committee on Africa on the development of international education. Among his many and varied qualifications, one that is of interest to us is that Dr. Adegbite is an "adopted brother" of one of SLCOA's founders, Dr. William E. Allen, Jr. The meeting will be at 2:30 pm at Busch Memorial Student Center at St. Louis University, Northeast corner Grand and Laclede Streets.

THE ORGANIZATION OF ARAB STUDENTS held their annual dinner in "Commemoration of Palestine Day, May 15" on Friday, May 17 at Busch Memorial Student Union, St. Louis University. Dr. F. Sayegh, Senior Kuwaiti Delegate to the United Nations addressed the dinner. Mr. Mohamed el-Hennawi is President of the Organization of Arab Students. Members of the Executive Board of SLCOA were invited guests. Board members who attended were Tom Reithmann, Lenore Friedman, T.H. Mayberry, Billie Cover, James Munio, and Ed Ncube. Mrs. Allyce Hamilton was a guest at the speakers' table.

VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED to assist in the arrangements for THE LION AND THE JEWEL, Wole Soyinka's play to be produced by the Actors Workshop. The play will be presented at the Loretto-Hilton Theater, Webster College, on Saturday, June 22 at 8:30 pm. Volunteers for publicity, tickets, hostesses and telephoning are needed. Contact Mrs. Billie Cover if able to help. Catherine Dunham is arranging the choreography for the production. Use the following coupon for ordering tickets for the play.
