RE: 1. A call for inaugural papers (published with your permission)
2. Tandi Luthuli Gcabashe’s visit to Nashville
3. An invitation

Dear [Name],

First, let me take this opportunity to thank you for your counsel and participation in establishing the Luthuli-Mandela Lecture Series. I can honestly say that if it had not been for your invaluable assistance and sincere respect for what we are attempting to accomplish, this lecture series would not be a reality.

A call for inaugural papers
Please allow me to say that I consider you to be a very knowledgeable person on the issues encasing South Africa. Subsequently, I am requesting a position paper addressing the following questions.
1. The significance of the Luthuli-Mandela Lecture Series
2. The significance of the Series in relationship to First Baptist Church Capitol Hill’s civil and human rights record.
4. Describe your experience in/with the South African struggle.

Other information needed from you are a copy of your curriculum vitae and a signed statement giving us permission to publish your position paper.

An editorial committee has been appointed for this project. The deadline is November 1, 1990. Please know we appreciate all that you have done and look forward to your continued participation.

Tandi Luthuli Gcabashe’s visit to Nashville
Ms. Gcabashe, the daughter of Chief Albert Luthuli will be honored on Saturday, November 17, 1990, 7 p.m. at a reception to be held at the Parthenon. She will give the inaugural speech for the Luthuli-Mandela Lecture Series in conjunction with Women’s Day at First Baptist Church Capitol Hill on Sunday, November 18, 1990 at the 10:55 a.m. worship service.

We hope your schedule will allow you to be in attendance. Please RSVP Regrets Only at (615) 385-2075. Should you need hotel accommodations, please contact the Holiday Inn Crown Plaza (615-259-2000.)

Yours in Christ,

Kwame
