ALL-DAY DIVESTITURE
TEACH-OUT
Thursday, May 2, 1985
On the Lawn in Front of Lamont Library.
Rain Date, Friday, May 3, 1985.

10 AM   Introduction
10:15   Readings of speeches made from the dock by South African political prisoners.
10:30   Teach-out Library opens.
10:50   Readings from current South African poets, and silent study.
11:20   The Corporate Response to the Divestiture Movement
        Case Study: IBM.
11:40   Beyond the ivory Tower, the role of the university in society.
12:00   Is Money Preventing Harvard from Divesting?
12:20   Divestiture: the Moral Imperative.
        -Mel Reynolds, Joint Center for Urban Studies.
12:40   The Life and Times of Steve Biko.
1:00    What Impact Can Divestiture Have?
        -Rev. Kenneth Carstens,
1:20    The Black South African Position on Divestiture.
1:40    Harvard's Investment Policy.
        -Invitation issued to Harvard Corporation Members.
2:00    Silent study and poetry readings.
2:30    History of Apartheid.
        -Dr. Rita Breen, Harvard Committee on African Studies.
2:50    The Modernization of Apartheid.
3:10    Women and Families under Apartheid.
3:30    The Divestiture Movement Nation-Wide in the Last Year.
3:50    The Current Political Situation in Southern Africa.
        -David Goodman, Mobilization for Survival.
4:10    Prospective Futures of a Free South Africa.
4:30    The Future of the Anti-Apartheid Movement.
5:00    Teach-in ends with 5 minutes of silence for those suffering under the yoke of apartheid in South Africa.

This program is designed as an educational exercise. We welcome and encourage students who are curious yet undecided about the divestiture issue to attend. Ample time will be set aside for questions for speakers. We encourage thoughtful discussion on this important issue.

App'd SASC, 5/3.