BUSINESS AND CIVIC LEADERS PROVIDE SANCTUARY FOR RACISTS

Unity in Action has initiated a boycott against the Beverly Hills business sector with this Information Picketline. The boycott of all merchants has been called to protest the refusal of Beverly Hills business and political leadership to develop a meaningful policy/action declaration against apartheid South Africa and its consulate within this city.

The Chamber of Commerce board president and executive director have not acknowledged written or telephone communications from Unity in Action. A resolution on apartheid passed by the Beverly Hills City Council (12/3/85) is only hollow rhetoric and a slap in the face of oppressed South Africans.

For the past five years this city has harbored the Beverly Hills-South African Consulate, providing a safe haven, warm relations, easy access to regional markets, and police protection. While the City Council says it is helpless, cities across the nation have taken action to transfer their deposits to banks which do not lend money to South Africa; name streets, buildings, or parks for Nelson Mandela; place city pension funds with South Africa-free investments; and honor victims and opponents of apartheid at City Council and Chamber of Commerce meetings. With your assistance, we can help Beverly Hills find the moral strength and political muscle exhibited by other municipalities.
