IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN KNOWING MORE ABOUT SOUTH AFRICA AND NAMIBIA, PLEASE COME TO SALC'S MONDAY MOVIES.

SPRING TERM, 1987 MOVIE SCHEDULE IS:

APR. 20, SOUTH AFRICA UNEDITED
A video shot clandestinely in South Africa, showing scenes of children under apartheid, South African security forces in action and the media under attack. Afravision, 1986, 30 minutes.

NAMIBIA: A CRY FOR FREEDOM

MAY 4, NOTICE TO QUIT—THE LION NEVER SLEEPS
A video showing how song, culture and political action are combined to produce a united front against apartheid. Several songs by Hugh Masekela are featured. International Defence and Aid Fund for South Africa, 1986, 37 minutes.

MAY 18, KILLING A DREAM
A video demonstrating the repressive measures, including physical attacks used to quell resistance in Angola against apartheid. CBS, 1986, 37 minutes.

JUNE 1, NAMIBIANS IN EXILE: Building a better future
A video filmed inside refugee centers in neighboring Angola. It represents a positive view of the preparation of refugees for their eventual day of freedom when they can return home to an independent Namibia. Southern Africa Lutheran World Advocacy Program, 1985, 37 minutes.

CONTROLLING INTEREST:
A film showing the world of the multi-national corporation and its impact on the forces of development in the third world. California Newsreel, 1980, 55 minutes.

All films are shown in 102B Wells Hall on the MSU campus–7:30 PM. They are sponsored by SALC with a grant from the RHA Alternative Movie Fund and are recommended by the MSU African Studies Center to encourage awareness of the problems of Southern Africa—50¢ donation is requested but not required.

IF YOU ARE CONCERNED ABOUT THE U.S. SUPPORT OF APARTHEID SOUTH AFRICA AND WOULD LIKE TO DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT, PLEASE JOIN SALC, WE NEED YOUR THOUGHTS AND EFFORTS IN:

1. Letter writing campaigns.
2. Working with Michigan legislators.
3. Student conferences.
4. Staffing literature tables.
5. Posting movie flyers.
6. Putting up displays.

SALC meets every Wednesday, Con Con Room International Center, 5:00 PM., NEW MEMBERS WELCOME!!!