A vice-president of Citicorp is addressing a conference tonight in the Campus Center.

CITICORP HAS MADE OVER $250 MILLION IN DIRECT LOANS TO THE APARTHEID GOVERNMENT OF SOUTH AFRICA.

Citicorp is financing a government that shoots peaceful protesters in the streets, forbids blacks to vote or have freedom of movement, bans or jails opposition leaders, pays white workers TEN TIMES the wages of black workers. Nobel Prize winner Bishop Tutu, as well as other leading South Africans, are begging the American people to stop U.S. money from supporting apartheid.

WHY HAS THE UNIVERSITY INVITED CITICORP HERE TONIGHT?

UMass is supposed to have a commitment to divestment from South Africa. That commitment MUST include a condemnation of all financial support of the racist regime.

INVITING A SPEAKER FROM CITICORP GIVES TACIT APPROVAL TO THEIR SOUTH AFRICAN INVESTMENTS.

LARGEST U.S. LENDER TO SOUTH AFRICA

THE PEOPLE OF SOUTH AFRICA ASK FOR OUR HELP
PLEASE PROTEST CITICORP
