

From South Africa to South Central Los Angeles: The Decline of Health Care

ISSUES TO BE DISCUSSED

- *Psychological impact of violence on mental health
- *Role of women in health care
- *Apartheid health care: Impact on children
- *Alternative health care models
- *The relationship of health and the environment

SPEAKERS: Barry Kistnasamy M.D.; Visiting scholar at University of Michigan (School of Public Health); Member of National Medical and Dental Association in South Africa; Member of the African National Congress; and Specialist in Community/Occupational Health.

Jan B. King M.D.; Specialist in Internal Medicine and comparative health delivery systems; Field work in Costa Rica, Kenya, Cuba, and South Africa; Member of Committee on Health in Southern Africa.

PLACE: Black Employees Association Center; 5462 Crenshaw Blvd

DATE & TIME: Saturday, January 5 at 7:00p.m. to 9:00p.m. 1991

For more information please call (213)316-5506 or (213)836-8237

Sponsored by: Committee on Health in Southern Africa; Friends of the ANC & Frontline States; South African International Student Congress (SAISCO).

PROGRESSIVE HEALTH CARE POLICY:

Acceptance of health as a basic human right; redressing existing inequalities in health status and the inequitable distribution of human resources; and community participation in implementation of health development programs.

