RECEPTION

Mozambique gained independence in 1975 after more than 400 years of Portuguese rule. Since then, Mozambique has been ravaged by the South African-backed terrorism of the Mozambique National Resistance (MNR), also known as Renamo. Renamo forces target civilians, schools, hospitals, ports, bridges, railroads, rural infrastructure, agriculture, and food convoys, with the objective of destabilizing economic and social development in Mozambique. South Africa engineers Renamo terrorism to prevent the countries in Southern Africa (the frontline states) from threatening the apartheid regime.
Special thanks to host pastor Rev. Louis Brewer and the Union Missionary Baptist Church
