

Experience the Struggle in Southern Africa

The Holocaust has Begun

The People—

Their hopes, dreams and struggles for a better life.

The History of Apartheid—

Its brutality against Black people and others.

The Economics of Apartheid—

Modern Day Slavery.

The Geography of Apartheid—

A land of great wealth and resources.

The Politics of Apartheid—

The International Connections.

An All Day Conference
Saturday, May 30, 1987
10 am – 4 pm

Temple University,
Gladfelter Hall (Room 107),
12th and Berks Streets

Admission Free

Films Speakers

Workshops Forums

Exhibits

Cultural Entertainment

Ethnic Foods For Sale

Sponsored By:

Institute of African and African American Affairs
Martin Luther King Anti-Apartheid Coalition
Philadelphia Chapter, American Federation of Teachers Black Caucus
The Support Committee for the Solomon
Mahlangu Freedom College
Call to Conscience Network
Alliance of Black Social Workers
Pan-African Studies, Temple University
Van Elliott Associates

For more information, call 215-787-1993 (day)
215-848-1806 (eve)