Calendar Announcement

Portlanders Organized for Southern African Freedom (POSAF), the American Friends Service Committee (AFSC) and the African Students Association at Portland State University invite the community to participate in a rare community event.

Portia Buites (pronounced Bates), a Black South African woman and student at Oregon State University, will be the featured speaker on a special evening program devoted to learning about the role of African women in the struggle for South African liberation.

The program will also include original poetry readings, a performance by the Talking Drum Dancers and a reception featuring African food. There is no charge for the event, however donations are welcome.

The date is Saturday, November 10th from 7-10 p.m. at Mt. Olivet Baptist Church, 116 N.E. Schuyler.

Black Community Television, Channel 23 (Rogers Cablesystems) will feature South Africa Information Night on Monday, November 5th from 5 to 9 p.m. The schedule is as follows:

- 5 p.m. NE Spectrum
- 6 p.m. NE Spectrum
- 7 p.m. When Non-Violence Fails: The Case of South Africa
- 8 p.m. Rev. Allan Boesak
- 8:30 p.m. Nobel Prize Winner, Bishop Desmond Tutu
