SOUTH AFRICA: THE RISING TIDE

"Some of the most truly remarkable footage I have seen on the repressive South African system . . ."

Bob Van Lierop, filmmaker

SOUTH AFRICA: THE RISING TIDE depicts South Africa today: the uprisings in the black townships; the extensive military build-up; U.S. support of apartheid; South African undermining of Zimbabwe and Namibian independence. This highly acclaimed film was made by BOUBAKAR ADJALI.

NAMIBIA: A STUDY IN COLONIALISM will also be shown.

POSTERS from the American Committee On Africa 1977 Anti-Apartheid Poster Contest.

BRIEF PRESENTATIONS: Prexy Nesbitt, National Coordinator for the Committee to Oppose Bank Loans to South Africa, Niva Padilha (AFSC) on Oct. 1 and Steve Talbot (Internews) on Oct. 4 — both recently returned from Southern Africa.

BENEFIT for STOP BANKING ON APARTHEID a community coalition protesting Bank of America's direct support to South Africa, redlining, deficient affirmative action, and its use of public and private pension funds to support apartheid. Contact STOP BANKING ON APARTHEID through BA-NAG at 626-3131.
