VOICES FROM SOUTHERN AFRICA: DISCOVERING A REVOLUTIONARY IDENTITY

November 20 (TENTATIVE)

A LUTA CONTINUA--new film made in the liberated areas of Mozambique. The filmmaker, Bob VanLierop, may also be present.

THREE WORKSHOPS

In this series we will listen to the voices of Southern Africans engaged in the struggle for liberation. We will look at writings of unknown militants as well as movement leaders such as Cabral, Neto, Mondlane, Dos Santos. Recorded music and taped interviews will be mixed with oral readings and discussion by all participants.

The workshops are free; donations for the liberation movements will be welcome.
