The Chicago Southern Africa Coalition presents

SOUTHERN AFRICA

The Struggle Continues

Bob Van Lierop (maker of A Lute Continua, a Ford organized) will report on the conference he attended in Maputo, Mozambique on the liberation of southern Africa and the defense of newly liberated Angola and Mozambique.

Ronelle Austin (National Anti-Imperialist Movement in Solidarity with African Liberation) will report on the World Peace Council meeting held in Lisbon, which concentrated on support for African liberation.

Carole Collins (Chicago Committee for African Liberation) will give a slide presentation on her recent trip to Mozambique, where she visited farms, factories and refugee camps and spoke with members of factory committees and with FRELIMO cadre and attended meetings of Dynamizing groups and of the Organizations of Mozambican Women.

A coalition member will discuss the Chicago campaign against U.S. banks who lend money to the South African government and corporations.
