Carol Collins recently returned from an 11 month tour of several African countries including Tanzania, Zambia and Mozambique. She was able to meet with representatives of liberation groups from South Africa, Zimbabwe (Rhodesia) and Namibia. While in Mozambique she visited refugee camps for Zimbabwean refugees. Collins is a national staff person for the Coalition for the Liberation of Southern Africa and a contributing editor to Merip Reports. The present crackdown on the Black movement in South Africa will be discussed.

Thurs., Nov. 10, 2:30 pm
UWM Union E 307

SPONSORED BY:
STUDENT COALITION AGAINST RACISM
MILWAUKEE COMMITTEE ON SOUTHERN AFRICA

For more information call S.C.A.R. at 963-5551 or 332-0924