Chicago Committee for African Liberation invites the public to a series of open educational meetings on NEOCOLONIALISM.

Discussions will be led by CCAL members and guest speakers; audience participation is very much encouraged. There will be suggested readings for each session, but please don't feel you must have completed them.

FRI, FEB. 17, 8:00 What is Neocolonialism?

Neocolonialism's origins in U.S. foreign policy—and the particular ways neocolonialism shapes the economy of the neocolony.

Suggested readings: Frank, "The development of Underdevelopment" Rodney, How Europe Underdeveloped Africa, ch. 1 (some reprints available) Garcia Marquez, One Hundred Years of Solitude (novel, in English or Spanish)

FRI, MAR. 17, 8:00 Kenya: a Case Study

A detailed look at how Britain and the U.S. intervened in newly-independent Kenya, politically, economically and culturally, to prevent genuine independence.

Suggested reading: Lays, Underdevelopment in Kenya

FRI, APR. 21, 8:00 Neocolonialism at Home & Abroad: How to Fight It

Strategies for exposing and opposing neocolonialism, in the countries where it has taken root, and here, in the seat of empire.

Suggested reading: to be announced

These are the first three in what is hoped will be a continuing series of public educational meetings on topics of interest to all who support freedom.
