Organizational Participants (1979)

--The organizations and institutions now participating in the bank campaign are:

Ad Hoc Committee Against Bank Loans to South Africa (Rochester, New York)
African Agenda
American Committee on Africa
American Friends Service Committee (National)
American Friends Service Committee (Midwest)
Americans for Democratic Action
Asociacion Puertorricuena de Artistas y Tecnicos
Berkeley Citizens Action (California)
Black Church Studies Program, Colgate Rochester Divinity School
Black Students Organization, Columbia University
Black Theology Project
Boston Coalition for the Liberation of Southern Africa
Center for International Education
Chicago Southern Africa Bank Campaign Coalition
Church of the Intercession
Clergy & Laity Concerned
Coalition of Concerned Black Americans
District 55 Distributive Workers of America
District Council 1707, AFSCME, AFL-CIO
District 1199 National Union of Hospital & Health Care Employees, AFL-CIO
Furriers Joint Council of New York
Institute for Education in Peace & Justice
Institute for Sport and Social Analysis
International Longshoremen & Warehouse Workers Union, Local 6
International Union, United Automobile & Aerospace Workers (UAW)
Internews
Massachusetts Conference Task Force on Southern Africa, United Church of Christ
Minnesota Committee on Southern Africa
Namibia Peace Center
National Council of Black Lawyers
National Lawyers Guild
Northern California Interfaith Committee on Corporate Responsibility
Pan African Students Organization in America (PASOA)
Philadelphia Namibia Action Group
Potomac Association, Central Atlantic Conference, United Church of Christ
Resist
River View Towers Housing Cooperative (New York)
Robert R. Moton Institute
Rochester Peace & Justice Education Center
San Antonio Committee Against Mercenary Recruitment
South Africa Freedom Day Coalition (New York)
Southern Africa Committee
Stop Bank of America Banking on Apartheid Campaign (California)
The East Organization (New York)
United Church of Christ Commission for Racial Justice
United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America (UE)
United Steelworkers of America, District 31, Gary, Indiana
Washington Office on Africa
Women’s International League for Peace & Freedom

--We are actively seeking others to join this growing list.

Correction: The Sisters of Charity did not withdraw their funds from Citibank.