WHAT YOUR MONEY DOES: BANKS AT HOME AND ABROAD

A series of sessions for Residents of the D.C. Community!

* How different kinds of banks work and what they do with your money

* How banks affect our community: red-lining, services to the poor and elderly, affirmative action in employment, union-busting, investment priorities, impact on municipal bond interest rates.

* How banks use and misuse our money overseas: South Africa, Chile, the IMF and World Bank and much more.

* Ways banks can strengthen our community

* How Reagan's policies will affect banks and ourselves.

* How to pressure banks to change!

The course will be coordinated by Carole Collins, National Coordinator, Campaign to Oppose Bank Loans to South Africa and Guest Scholar at the Institute for Policy Studies. Other resource people will be speaking at various sessions.

SATURDAYS - 10 AM to 12:30 PM - January 30 to March 13
(no class February 13)
Institute for Policy Studies, 1901 Q Street, NW - Seminar Room
6 sessions for $40 (scholarship $25)

For more information: Call Lynn Liotta or Carole Collins, 234-9382 by Jan. 28

WASHINGTON SCHOOL, Institute for Policy Studies, 1901 Que Street, NW, Washington, DC