Dear Friend:

Harvard University will have a new president this year. At this important time, it is vital to have an independent, constructively critical Board of Overseers to help steer Harvard toward social responsibility. HRAAA has sponsored the three petition candidates listed below in order to support increased campus diversity, greater openness in the way Harvard conducts its affairs, and constant attention to the social and moral consequences of Harvard's policies:

- Rev. Dr. F. Forrester Church, a 1974 Divinity School and 1978 doctoral graduate, now Senior Minister of All Souls Unitarian Church in New York and author of many books, including a biography of his father, Senator Frank Church of Idaho.

- Barack Obama, currently the first African-American President of the Harvard Law Review, and formerly director of a grassroots community development group in Chicago.

- Nadine Strossen, a 1972 Radcliffe and 1975 Law School graduate, newly elected President of the American Civil Liberties Union and a professor at New York Law School.

Please look for these candidates at the bottom of your Overseers' ballot when it arrives in the mail this month. All Harvard and Radcliffe graduates who are not presently employed at Harvard may vote. If you are entitled to vote and do not receive a ballot by May 1, call Mr. Märten Liander at the Governing Boards office, 617-495-1534 (fax 617-495-8819), and one will be sent to you by first-class mail.

Very truly yours,

Donald M. Solomon, J.D. '73, Executive Director

HRAAA has supported diversity and social responsibility at Harvard since 1985. We invite your membership and support for our efforts. Please call 603-358-6067 to request a membership brochure. Please send any duplicate or incorrectly addressed labels to the address on the reverse side of this card. Thank you.