In the Eye of the Storm
Reports from the War in Southern Africa

Is Southern Africa the site of the next major war? Will the US move from political to military intervention? Who are the men and women fighting to free their countries? Do women participate as equals in this fight?

Now is the time to take these questions which shape the course of our decade to your students, community and co-workers. Next spring, LSM's Candice Wright and Steven Goldfield will return from the frontlines of Southern Africa with vivid, first-hand reports for North Americans. From their stay with South African, Namibian, and Zimbabwean freedom fighters, Goldfield and Wright will convey the deeper sense of this struggle, picking up where the front-page news leaves off.

Programs

Each presentation, including a film or slideshow, will focus on one topic – the battle for Zimbabwe; Mozambique: marxist theory confronts the reality of underdevelopment; the changing role of women; South African fighters’ view of foreign investment. Final program titles will be determined in January.

Tentative Itinerary

EAST COAST (Montreal to DC) March 18 - April 5

MIDWEST
(Ontario, Mich., Illinois, Ohio) April 8 - 19

WEST COAST
(Wash., Oregon, Calif.) April 22 - May 1

We will accept bookings in other areas if schedule permits. The itinerary will be finalized by January 31.

Fees

The following list are our suggested fees, negotiable to suit your budget.

Colleges and institutions - full program $250.00
Colleges - classroom program $125.00
Community groups, churches, organizations $125.00
or 50 percent of receipts.

Booking Form

Please book us for ___ programs(s).
Suggested date _______________________

Please send us more information _______________________
Name of institution-organization _______________________
Contact person _______________________
Address _______________________
Tel _______________________
Comments _______________________

Send to: Tour Committee, LSM, P.O. Box 2077, Oakland, CA 94604.