SHARPEVILLE MEMORIAL

IN 1960, S. AFRICAN BLACKS ASKED FOR FREEDOM. ON MARCH 21, 1960, SOUTH AFRICAN POLICE, AT SHARPEVILLE, FIRED WITHOUT WARNING INTO A GROUP OF PEACEFUL PROTESTERS. HUNDREDS WERE WOUNDED AND SEVENTY WERE KILLED.

THE TIME OF ASKING FOR FREEDOM WAS OVER

SHARPEVILLE MEMORIAL PROGRAM

NOON TILL ONE / THURSDAY the 15th
CHANNING-MURRAY FOUNDATION
Oregon & Mathews Streets

DONALD CRUMMEY [Assoc. Prof. African History]
KRISTIN LEMS & TIM YEAR Singers
C.U. Coalition Against Apartheid

Black armbands will be distributed.

ALSO

Open meeting - Tuesday, March 13, 7pm. 213 Greg

An introduction to South African issues and the C-U.CAA... followed by a discussion of recent events and future action...

C-U Coalition Against Apartheid