NOTICE TO EDITORS
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Contact: Pat Widmayer, 489-6517

A seminar discussion of problems and recent events in Southern Africa will be held Saturday, May 22nd at the MSU Union, Room 336. The discussion will be from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m.

The participants will seek to inform the community of the important events now occurring in Southern Africa, and of the implication of those events for the United States. The moderator will be Rep. Bob Carr, (Dem.) East Lansing. Appearing will be:

Dr. Ruth Hamilton, MSU Associate Professor of Urban Affairs and African Studies.

Timothy Smith, Director of the Interfaith Center on Corporate Responsibility for the National Council of Churches.

Eddison Zvobgo, Associate Law Professor at Lewis University, College of Law and General Secretary of Zimbabwe African National Union (ZANU)

Paula Whatley, Producer-Director of TV 23 "Perspectives in Black"

A representative from the United Auto Workers.

Dr. Leroy Johnson, MSU Instructor in Racial and Ethnic Studies

Carol Thompson, MSU Graduate Assistant in Political Science and member of the South Africa Liberation Committee

Other representatives from the business, labor and academic communities as well as the public have been invited.

#    #