NEWS RELEASE

FOR RELEASE

FEBRUARY 13, 1985

For further info, contact:
Craig Stevens at 656-2721

(News media are invited to the Community Forum on Feb. 13 or to arrange interviews morning or afternoon, 2/13)

ANTI-APARTHEID ORGANIZER TO SPEAK IN WILMINGTON AREA —

FEBRUARY 13th

Daki Napata, a community organizer and educator, will speak at a Community Forum on "What We Can Do to End Apartheid in South Africa" on Wednesday, Feb. 13th. The Forum will be held at West Presbyterian Church, Fellowship Hall, beginning at 7:30 p.m. (8th and Washington Sts., Wilm.).

Daki Napata has been invited to speak in Wilmington by community leaders who are planning a city-wide conference on South Africa scheduled for Saturday, March 30th. Brother Napata will be speaking on strategies for immediate and long-term action to effect U.S. policy towards South Africa, as well as on the need to bring together all segments of our community to challenge U.S. corporate, government and military complicity with the racist Apartheid system in South Africa. Brother Napata will be joined at the Community Forum by representatives of Wilmington area Black, Hispanic, labor, religious and community organizations to begin forming a common agenda on the Apartheid issue.

(cont'd...

Brother Napata will also be speaking to student groups at the University of Delaware (Tuesday evening, Feb. 12) and Delaware State College (Thursday, Feb. 14th).

Daki Napata serves as Southern Africa Program staff for the American Friends Service Committee in Baltimore. He is co-chair of the Maryland Anti-Apartheid Coalition and co-founder of the Baltimore Divestment Coalition.

Pacem in Terris is associated with the American Friends Service Committee – Middle Atlantic Region (Baltimore) and works in cooperation with the Delmarva Ecumenical Agency.

- 30 -

Enclosure: South Africa Fact Sheet

CS/di